OLD JACKSONVILLE

TWO BUSINESS MEN

By Ensley Moore

(Member Illinois State Historical Society)

It is singular "how soon we are forgot," as Mr. Shakespeare made one of his people remark. This applies to many who spent their last days here and more especially to others here for a time and then moving elsewhere. Among these was

Alexander Edgmon.

Mr. Edgmon was born in Sullivan county, Tennessee—East—Dec. 5th, 1819—nearly a century ago.

He came to Waverly, this county, with his widowed mother, Rebecca, and family in April, 1836, where he remained until 1840, when he came here and settled. He lived in town until 1871, when he removed to his farm two miles south of Jacksonville. His residence, in town, was on South Diamond street, on the east side, near Anna.

A Brick Maker.

Mr. Edgmon was a manufacturer of brick, with A. P. W. Taintor for some years. He then continued the business alone until 1865, when he was joined by Wm. G. Gallaher. They then kept up the business until 1870, Mr. Edgmon again being by himself for a year. He then sold a half interest to G. W. Hilly, and a year later sold the remainder to L. B. Ross. At that time Mr. Edgmon and his partners had made more brick than any others in this county. Their pressed bricks have been shipped to other parts of the state. One year they employed over one hundred men, and made, for several years, over 5,000,000 brick.

The brick yards, for a while, were on the east side of South Diamond street, south of Grove street. Mr. Edgmon had three additions to the city, south of Grove and east of South Diamond streets, partly to the Brook. In the plat book one of his streets was named Edgmont. In this connection it is to be said that, in iron culvert, at the side walk crossing of North Fayette and W. State streets is marked "Edgmont street." It is far from home, and may have gone there to attend the High School, and learn how properly to spell its name.

A City Father.

Mr. Edgmon was a town Trustee in 1864, and a member of the City Council in 1869. He was an enterprising man and good citizen. Politically he was a Republican.

A Man of Family.

He was also a married man, and had a son William, and a daughter, Julia E., who married Mr. Taylor.

Mr. Edgmon and family were members of, or attendants at Westminster church, of which he was a Trustee about 1870.

The Edgmons moved away, presumably to Missouri, along about the '80s.

Benj. F. Gass.

Mr. Gass' initials suggest that he was named after Benjamin Franklin, but in size and personal appearance he resembled that other printer and newspaper man, Horace Greeley.

Greeley lectured here in 1859, and the writer, meeting Mr. Gass on the street about that time, took him for the alleged "Philosopher of the Tribune."

But Mr. Gass was an upbuilder in material rather than mental matters, altho a man of considerable ability. He belonged to the great army of mechanics and did a good part in his trade as a carpenter.

A Native of Kentucky.

Mr. Gass was born in Madison county, Kentucky, Nov. 4th, 1807. He was the son of James and Isabel Gass, being the youngest of three children. He was educated, and became a carpenter and joiner in his native state.

An Early Settler Here.

Mr. Gass came to Jacksonville March 27th, 1833. His residence was on Washington street, at the northwest corner of East street.

Superintended Public Buildings.

Mr. Gass did a work as superintendent of construction of several buildings, of which he might have been proud. Among these were the Illinois Woman's College, the Illinois School for the Blind, Centenary M. E. church and the Morgan County Court House. The part of "the Blind" probably was that erected about 1870-2, after the destruction of the original building in 1869.

He was a man of good character and qualified in his business.

In Public Affairs.

As seemed to be incumbent upon almost every man, Mr. Gass was a member of that volunteer fire company of 1840.

He was a town Trustee in 1846, and a member of the City Council in 1873.

In the year 1837 there was, as has been previously noted, a society here "for the purpose of affording relief to the sick and disabled members thereof, and to the widows and orphans of deceased members, and for the promotion of literature, science and the mechanic arts, and for no other purpose whatever." Of this Mr. Gass was a member.

A Methodist in Religion.

Mr. Gass was a strong Methodist in religious relationship.

He passed on many years ago.

Mrs. A. H. McElhern and children, Virginia and Eugene, were city arrivals from Roodhouse yesterday.

Ralph and Orville Dowland, Byron Dugger and Henry Edwards were a jolly auto load from Scottville to the city yesterday.

Mrs. Siegfried and Miss Hazel Busby have gone to St. Louis for a visit with Mrs. Siegfried's son Clarence.

Mrs. George Hall and daughter Rachel, C. M. Strawn and John Snyder were city arrivals from Alexander yesterday.

Mrs. Julia Van Winkle of Farmersville is visiting her sister, Mrs. G. N. Sargent on South Main street.

Mrs. H. H. Hall has returned to her home on West College avenue after a summer vacation at Harbor Springs. She will be gladly greeted by a great many friends.

Mrs. C. N. Seymour and grandson of South Main street have returned from a visit with Mrs. Seymour's daughter, Mrs. John Ryan of Franklin.

J. T. Mathers has ended his home vacation and has gone to his territory in Michigan where he represents a stock food company.

Mr. and Mrs. John R. Allen, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Allen of the west part of the county took in the attractions of the city yesterday.

Mrs. Ernest Dyer expects to leave tomorrow for Liberal, Kansas, where she will make her home with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Curtis.

Mr. and Mrs. Charley Howard of Chapin spent Saturday night and Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Harris of the Markham neighborhood.

Mrs. J. W. McLaughlin and daughter Florence of Franklin left yesterday for Colorado Springs, Colo., to spend the winter.

Today Mrs. J. W. Lifer will drive to Carrollton, taking with her Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Crouch and Misses Ezzie and Carrie Ratachak. They will attend the Greene county fair and be guests of Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Wright.

A little child was in the basement of the Ayers National bank yesterday and noticing the great vault door with its dials and other accessories remarked: "My O, isn't that a big speedometer?"

Mrs. Eugene Pyatt and sons, Julian, Edward and John, have returned from Rock Island where they have been for some time, the boys employed in the great arsenal. The first two will attend Illinois college and John will go to the high school.

S. L. Perry has entered the employ of Messrs. Andre & Andre. His immediate department will be collections though he will also familiarize himself with the stock and assist in the selling department as well. Mr. Perry is a man of good experience and reputation and will be a valuable addition to the force.

"Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Hartman, former residents of Argenta, are certainly doing their part in the great war to put down militarism, they having furnished five sons who are all in the service except one and he is expecting to be called in the next draft."

"The oldest son Ernest Hartman, age 26 years, of the Goshart Dry Goods Company is now a member of Co. G., I. R. M. at Decatur; the second son Leslie Hartman, age 24, is in the Aviation work at Americus, Ga., his duty is assembling airplanes and testing them; the third son Clyde Hartman, age 21 is now somewhere on his way to France; the fourth son Herbert Hartman, age 20 is expecting to be called soon; the fifth son Merwin, age 18 is in the Student's Army Training Corps at J. M. C.

"The Decatur Review claims this family honor for Decatur, but we think Argenta is really more entitled to the honor than Decatur, as every one of these boys were born and reared here and lived in Argenta until 1915."

The Democratic Nominee For State Senator

A. L. HERFORD.

The following is copied from a letter received by Mr. Herford from a man well known throughout the state:

"At this time, when weighty problems are pressing for solution in both state and nation, the people are insistently demanding that those who seek election to seats in legislative bodies must be men of the highest ability, integrity and character, and should have a comprehensive understanding of pressing needs.

"Your nomination for state senator by the Democrats of the Forty-fifth legislative district, and your election will insure the people that grade of service which public interest demands.

"Your boyhood experience on a farm in Woodford county and in a grain office, as a school teacher, as a graduate of the Union College of Law, as a newspaper owner and publisher, and as superintendent of state printing, to which responsible position you were named by Governor Altgeld, has given you a wide experience of public affairs.

"The enterprise through which you are best known to the people in your district, however, and one which has given you the highest standing throughout the country, not only personally, but as an aggressive organizer, financial leader and successful business man, is the Court of Honor of which you have been the directing head since its organization in 1895. Under your able management and aggressive direction this fraternal beneficiary society has achieved a marvellous record and is recognized as one of the big institutions throughout the middle west.

"The fact that the home office of the Court of Honor is located at Springfield, where it occupies its own office building, and out of which is sent daily a vast amount of printed matter, advertises the city of Springfield in all parts of the country.

"The Court of Honor has paid death losses amounting to more than $14,000,000.

"Its deposits in local Springfield banks aggregate more than $1,500,000 per year, and its invested assets in excess of $3,000,000, including $600,000 in Liberty Loan bonds, indicate its great financial transactions.

"Located within the Forty-fifth legislative district are thousands of members of the Court of Honor. To the beneficiaries of deceased members in this district there has been disbursed a million dollars in death benefits, of which $850,000 has been disbursed in the payment of losses in Sangamon county and $150,000 in losses in Morgan county. In addition a very large amount of money has been disbursed as sick, accident and other benefits.

"Its managing officers reside in Springfield and the society employs a large number of accountants, stenographers and other clerical force, all of whom reside in Springfield, and to whom are paid good salaries, which is largely spent in Springfield.

"In addition official journals, with a circulation of 100,000 monthly, and its other printed matter, is printed in Springfield, and all of its other supplies are purchased in Springfield, all of which has made the Court of Honor one of the greatest business enterprises of Springfield.

"If a business man, one who has been successful and who is in the closest touch with the masses, then his fraternal associations and personal standing, is desired by the people for the high office of state senator, you will gain the support of earnest men without need of party politics."

Girls! Girls! Try It! Stop Dandruff and Beautify Your Hair

Hair Stops Falling Out and Gets Thick, Wavy, Strong and Beautiful.

Your hair becomes light, wavy, fluffy, abundant and appears as soft, lustrous and beautiful as a young girl's after a "Danderine hair cleanse." Just try this—moisten a cloth with a little Danderine and carefully draw it thru your hair, taking one small strand at a time. This will cleanse the hair of dust, dirt and excessive oil and in a few moments you have doubled the beauty of your hair.

Besides beautifying the hair at once, Danderine dissolves every particle of dandruff; cleanses, purifies and invigorates the scalp, forever stopping itching and falling hair.

But what will please you most will be after a few weeks' use when you will actually see new hair—fine and downy at first—yes—but really new hair growing all over the scalp. If you care for pretty soft hair and lots of it, surely get a small bottle of Knowlton's Danderine from any drugist or toilet counter for a few cents.

DR. KING COMMISSIONED FOR ARMY SERVICE

Dr. Allen M. King has been commissioned as captain in the medical reserve corps having been offered appointment yesterday by the surgeon general. Dr. King will go to Ft. Riley, Kans., about Oct. 15. The training camp there is at the old government fort and is for officers only. Dr. King recently took the examination at Springfield and has been awaiting appointment since that time.

The telegram from the surgeon general's office yesterday offered him the appointment with the rank of captain, and he immediately wired his acceptance. For nearly fourteen years Dr. King has practiced in Jacksonville and has occupied the same office that he has used for so many years. It is something of a coincidence that the elder King was also an army surgeon, serving with acceptance in the war of the Rebellion.

Dr. A. M. King has for several terms held the position of health physician in Jacksonville and has been identified with various public health movements. During the years he has built up a wide and successful practice. ## BRITISH TANKS UPROOT WHOLE FRENCH VILLAGE

Village Destroyed in Order to Stop Fire of German Machine Guns from Houses in Recent Allied Offensive.

London, August.—(British Wireless Service)—British tanks uprooted a whole French village to stop the fire of German machine guns from the houses, in the recent Allied offensive.

The French troops had been seriously hampered by the German machine guns in or on the tops of houses. Tanks were in vain and a message was sent to them for assistance. These complied, but the German machine guns were too well protected to be knocked out by the fire from the tank guns. According to the tank commanders conferred at the far end of the village and decided, in a hurried prompt war council, to destroy the village by sheer weight of metal.

The tanks accordingly rammed house after house bringing down the machine guns, extricating themselves from the ruins of one house, then proceeding to the next. In this way the village was captured without a single British casualty, and at one occupied by the French.

In another attack a tank was set on fire, the officer in command was killed and the first driver severely wounded, all within the German lines. The second driver extinguished the fire, assumed command and later in the day, drove back single handed, preceded by about fifty Germans, whom he captured unaided.

Another tank, temporarily knocked out, constituted itself a strong post inside the German lines, and held out for five hours until the infantry arrived.

A. work to those over the age of 37. Following is the text of the telegram:

Representatives of Y. M. C. A. Catholic National War Council Var Camp Community Service and Red Cross, after prolonged consideration of the selective service act and in consultation with the war department unanimously adopted the following: "First, that for overseas service the organizations affiliated with the commission of raising camp activities and the commission itself will appoint only men who are not in Class One or who were 37 years of age on or over September 12, 1918. Men under that age may be appointed if they are disqualified for military service by obvious physical defects. The war department will be requested to call for registration and classification men within draft age already working overseas with these organizations."

"Second resolution, that for service in America an exemption will be asked for men of Class One. ## FUNERALS

Very impressive were the funeral services held Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. K. C. Pierson in memory of Miss Jess Carlile Rottger. A large company gathered there and the service was in charge of Rev. W. R. Leslie, pastor of Centenary church, who was assisted by Dr. Joseph R. Harker. It was fitting, indeed, that the pastor of Centenary church should lead in the services because Miss Rottger was the fact that her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Rottger, long well known residents of the city, were identified with that church. Miss Rottger had thru some years been a student in one of the departments at the Illinois Woman's college and the presence of President Harker was therefore appropriate.

Rev. Mr. Leslie took as the theme for his remarks the familiar and comforting scripture passage, "Let not your hearts be troubled; ye believe in God, believe also in me. In my father's house are many mansions. If it were not so I would have told you." The minister referred to the characteristics which had made Miss Rottger's life beautiful and dwelt upon the comfort which comes from the scripture for those who sorrowfully separate from those they love. The scripture gives the hope that these separations shall be only for a time, and the minister dwelt in a helpful way upon the blessedness of this assurance.

Mrs. Florence Pierson Hartmann, who had been Miss Rottger's instructor at the Woman's college, sang "Beautiful Isle," accompanied very softly on the piano by Miss Lelia Skinner of the Woman's college. The house service closed with a feeling prayer by Dr. Harker. In his remarks Rev. Mr. Leslie mentioned that a sister of the deceased, Mrs. Henry D. Lewis, was unable to be present because she is ill in a hospital in Monmouth. It was impossible for the mother, Mrs. John Rottger, or for Frederick or Willis Rottger to come all the way from their home in California.

The flowers were especially beautiful and in great profusion and were cared for by Mrs. C. A. Johnson, Mrs. Austin C. Kingsley, Mrs. Charles Ator, Mrs. Thomas Heaton and Mrs. Zeta Wolter. Interment was in Diamond Grove cemetery and the bearers were C. A. Johnson, Charles Ator, Norman Kuykendall, William Sulby, John M. Butler and G. Roy Scott.

Among those here to attend the services were Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Rottger and Mrs. Joseph Ball, of Springfield; Mr. and Mrs. T. W. Sweeney, Frank Sweeney, Rushville; Mr. and Mrs. R. Roy Bruening, Mr. and Mrs. E. Terhune, Mrs. W. E. McFarland, Miss Mazie Cullinane and Mrs. A. D. Cullinane, Havana; Mrs. C. T. Taylor, Mr. Sterling.

FROM COUNTY AGENT'S OFFICE

Stubble Disease in Sheep.
A great many sheep have been brought into Illinois and used to clean the stubble fields, in some cases, a disease has appeared that has not heretofore come within the range of the experience of our best stock men. In some localities the trouble is called stubble disease. This disease is new to the county agent. He has not had any official information, either from the United States Department of Agriculture or from the State College of Agriculture concerning it. For the benefit of the farmers of the county an article is taken from the report of

Dr. D. F. Luckey, State Veterinarian concerning the disease over in Missouri. This article is really re-printed from the Breeder's Gazette.
"The first indication of trouble is a swelling and drooping of the ears. Then a discharge develops from the nose and eyes. The eyeballs turn yellow and the eye is glued shut by the sticky discharge. The nose is stopped up to the extent that the lamb must breathe thru its mouth. The head is drawn back and shows a nervous movement. After the symptoms are well developed there is practically no hope of recovery. Lambs and sheep that are only mildly affected may get well. As a rule the trouble occurs first among the lambs and later among sheep that are running upon oat stubble, timothy stubble and more rarely among sheep that are on blue grass pasture where a great deal of the grass has grown up and died. It is due to something that develops upon the stubble or dry grass. To prove this, the oat stubble upon which sheep became affected was cut and exclusively fed to well sheep, resulting in the development of the symptoms."

Dr. Luckey makes these suggestions: "Sheep running upon oat or timothy stubble or blue grass pastures where the grass has died should be watched carefully. Just as soon as the first lamb shows swelling and drooping of the ears there should be a complete change of feed. As it may be difficult to find another pasture where the poison is not present, it is best to put the whole flock upon dry hay until rains have come and there is an abundance of green grass. It appears that the dew on the grass has a bad effect upon the affected lambs and it is therefore advisable to keep the flock temporarily in some bare lot or field. They may be permitted to run in a corn field during the day, but should be driven out before the dew falls during the night and kept out the next morning until the dew has disappeared."

APPRECIATIVE WOMEN

How often is the question asked, "Are the testimonial letters published in the advertisements of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound genuine and true?" In answer to that question we want to answer most emphatically yes; and it is gladness for health restored by the use of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound after weeks, months and sometimes years of suffering that has prompted these women to write such letters in order that other women who suffer as they once did may profit by their experience.—Adv.

The Actual Cost of this War Can Never be Computed

—But we know this much, that it costs one million dollars a meal to feed the American soldiers and sailors now under arms. What will it mean to feed them next year when the new army gets into line?

—America's daily expenditure right now is fifty million dollars a day — over eighteen billion a year—next year it will be more.

—This tremendous expenditure is necessary if we are to win this war and make what we have safe and valuable.

THOROBRED HOGS AT PUBLIC SALE

Poland Chinas of A. L. Dorsey and Austin Patterson Brought Good Prices—T. N. Bush Held Retiring Sale.

A. L. Dorsey and Austin Patterson held a joint sale of Poland China thorobred hogs Wednesday at the A. L. Dorsey farm just west of Jacksonville on the Mound road. There was a goodly company of buyers, including a number of men from adjoining counties. The prices paid were uniformly satisfactory, as the quality of the stock offered was well established and both Mr. Dorsey and Mr. Patterson are well known breeders. The auctioneers were Col. E. B. McCracken of Paxton, Jed Cox of this city and Charles Taylor of Chapin. The clerk was Oscar Dennis of Chambersburg. The highest priced animal sold was No. 10, a male hog which took the first prize at the Kansas state fair at Topeka. This animal was purchased by Herschel McKinney for $400. The next highest price was for No. 9, which took the second prize at the Missouri state fair, and was purchased by Charles Stevenson for $225.

Led Cross Wins.

A good deal of interest was manifested in the sale of the Red Cross sow which Vincent R. Riley purchased for the sum of $215. After the animal had brought this good price a number of the men present made up a "jack pot" which was sold and the total for the Red Cross was $300 from these two transactions. The Red Cross was given another boost when Grant Graft put up the animal he had purchased and it was sold for the Red Cross, bringing $40.

With a very few exceptions all the animals sold were spring pigs. Mr. Dorsey who has for years made a specialty of raising thorobred Poland China hogs, came to Morgan county this year from Brown county. He expects to have a sale every fall and spring and in addition disposes of a good many animals at private sale. Mr. Patterson in recent years has become a very successful breeder and his herd of thorobreds is widely known.

FORMER MORGAN CO. MAN NOW AN AVIATOR

C. Sinclair, Now Inspector of Motors and Aeroplanes at Detroit, Mich., Formerly Resident of Prentice—Pittsburg Paper Describes Recent Flight.

The following clipping from a Pittsburg, Kans., paper tells of some recent air journeys: "C. Sinclair, an aviator in the service of the U. S. Mr. Sinclair, whose home was formerly at Prentice in this county, enlisted in the army in January, 1917, several months before the U. S. entered the war. For some time he was instructor in aviation at Rantoul field and was subsequently sent to the field at Wichita Falls, Tex. More recently he was transferred to Detroit, Mich., where he is now in the service as an inspector of motors and aeroplanes. His work is largely in connection with the Liberty motor. The Pittsburg paper's paragraphs are as follows:

"The graceful stranger in the air that passed over Pittsburg early last night with a loud roar and disappeared in the northeast was Pittsburgh No. 101." Pittsburgh's first air plane on its first flight. The machine was assembled by the Pittsburg Aircraft school and put thru its paces for the first time last night. It was put together on the temporary aviation field east of town, and flew over Pittsburg and Frontenac before returning to the field.

"The machine was piloted by Aviator C. Sinclair with 'Pat' O'Brien, mechanical student, as passenger. The company has two more planes almost ready for the air. W. T. Cook, head of the school said last night.

"One of the principal objects Mr. Cook said last night, is to use the machines in distribution of Liberty Bonds and other patriotic literature. Mr. Cook said that an aerial campaign for the Liberty Loan will be started soon and the residents will be bombarded from the air with patriotic literature.

"W. H. Stephenson was a passenger in the Pittsburg Liberty loan plane, which flew over Pittsburg and the surrounding vicinity for 30 minutes early last night.

Mr. Stephenson said after landing that the flight was the culmination of a long desire. He flew over the strip pits of the Stephenson coal company, with which he is affiliated.

"The Pittsburg plane made two flights yesterday, each being of longer duration than the flights made the previous day. Aviator C. Sinclair piloted the machine in its flights yesterday. The second flight, the one in which Mr. Stephenson participated, was the highest and longest soar taken. "Shorty" White of Little Rock, Ark., a student at the Pittsburg Aviation School, accompanied Sinclair on the first flight."

THE LIBERTY LOAN CAMPAIGN

To workers in Morgan county:

The results of our volunteer days are gratifying and speak well for Morgan county. However, you must bear in mind the fact that it takes united effort to complete our task as quickly as other counties.

A telegram from headquarters at St. Louis reads, "Do not slacken your pace until every precinct has gone over the top."

Many of you are already nearing the goal and it will aid the county headquarters in checking up the lists if you will see that all subscriptions are properly entered on the cards provided for that purpose and have the precinct and school district marked very plainly. As soon as cards are filled in send them to your precinct chairman who will tabulate them and forward them to the proper banks. The banks will then be able to give us daily sales promptly.

Citizens of Morgan county: Don't let your resources be drafted in this Fourth Liberty Loan. Volunteer them—give them freely—lend to the freedom of the world Down autocracy. Speak out as did Admiral Simms, "We are ready now, sir."

Everything the citizens of this county do to help break the morale of the German army should be done. Most of all it will be a pleasure to you to hear your own soldiers say when they come back to America, "We are proud of you, proud of Morgan county."

CONSTITUTION WAS LOWDEN'S THEME

Illinois Executive Addressed Mid-Day Club in Springfield Wednesday—Urged Constitutional Convention as War Time Necessity—Jacksonville Men Present.

Several Jacksonville people were in Springfield yesterday to attend the luncheon of the Mid-Day club at the Leland hotel, to hear a discussion of questions related to the proposed constitutional convention. Gov. Frank O. Lowden was the principal speaker and declared that the proposal to hold a state constitutional convention is a necessity at this time as an aid to bringing about more democratic conditions and in making the affairs of the state fit in with present day conditions. The governor believes that a constitutional convention and a revised constitution at this time are necessities. Justice Orrin Carter of the supreme court presided at the luncheon.

Mayor H. J. Rodgers, Thomas Worthington and W. L. Fay drove to Springfield from Jacksonville in Mayor Rodgers' car, to be present at the luncheon and Horace H. Bancroft was another Jacksonville man present. Mr. Bancroft is secretary of the state organization which is urging upon every community in the state the demand for a constitutional convention. Justice Carter is the president of the association.

The following facts about the meeting yesterday are taken from the Springfield News-Record:

A Vital Necessity. "Asserting that the people must to their share in making the world more democratic in its institutions, Governor Frank O. Lowden told the Mid-day club at the Leland hotel today that the adoption of the proposition to hold a state constitutional convention is a vital necessity in such a program. The governor formally opened the campaign for the adoption of the proposition at the luncheon election."

"Our boys are over on the western front," said Governor Lowden, "and they are fighting to make the world a better place in which to live. We, at home, should be willing to do our part in this great undertaking. We shall have done that part in Illinois when we make our laws larger in their justice and when we have taken the steps to make our institutions more democratic. As the requisite for this, the constitutional convention is first so that when our boys come home we can look them in the eyes and say that we have not been idle."

"In his speech, the governor brought out the outstanding reasons why it is immediately necessary to hold the convention. He told of the growing need of a revision in the tax laws and the laws governing condemnation of property, changes in which are impossible under the present constitution. He characterized the present tax laws as 'a bitter farce.'

Single Amendments Impossible. "For many years I held that a new constitution would be unnecessary. I believed that by changing the laws providing for only single amendments at a time would be effective. But I have found that it would be impossible, even if we were to make such a step, to get an agreement upon one single amendment at a time."

"The basic reasons for a change in the constitution, Governor Lowden said, are to be found in the minority representation and the single amendment law."

"He warned the audience to accept the proposition at the poll next month. 'If the people do not vote to sustain the action of the state assembly in its desire to hold a convention, it will be a generation before they ever will have the chance again. And we shall be tied hand and foot, in consequence, in the most vital period in our history in half a century, the period of reconstruction that is to follow the war.'

"Attorney General Brundage, who also was to have appeared at the luncheon, was unable to be present because of the pressure of other business. During the period following the governor's address an oral question box was conducted in regard to the constitutional convention."

A Varied Program. "Justice Orrin Carter of the state supreme court presided at the meeting, after being presented by former Congressman James M. Graham. Numerous members of the bar from central Illinois were present. Members of the state administration, except Lieut. Gov. John G. Oglesby and Attorney General Brundage sat at the speakers' table."

"Singing led by Elmer Kneale was a feature of the program. 'The Battle Hymn of the Republic,' and 'Keep the Home Fires Burning' were sung. Rev. John T. Thomas gave the invocation."

"With the holding of the first meeting of the campaign in the state here today inaugurating the fight for the adoption of the proposition, it was announced that meetings are to be held at Princeton, October 11; at Galena, October 12, and at Urbana, October 19, at which prominent jurists of the state will speak."
